City-based mephedrone firm 'inundated' with drug orders

BY JESSICA CUNNIFFE
jessica.cunniffe@mk-news.co.uk

A KILN Farm company says it has been inundated with orders for the controversial plant feed, mephedrone.

Internet-based Mkat4u has been selling the legal drug from Milton Keynes for two months.

Also known as MKAT and Meow Meow it has hit the headlines recently after being linked with the deaths of several youngsters who have used it as a recreational drug.

Anti drugs campaigners say the so-called 'plant feed' is being used as a cheaper version of cocaine or ecstasy.

The MK company's website which promises 'happy gardeners happy plants', says: 'Following the news this week, everyone has been going crazy for Plant Food, as a result we now have a very limited supply left!! So get your orders in quick!!!'

Mkat4u, warns that mephedrone is strictly not for human consumption, and states on its site: 'Pending Law Change - A lot of customers have been asking about this due to recent news events. If this does happen in the UK, rest assured we already have production schedules in place, and will be able to provide you with a suitable and sustainable alternative Plant Feed Product'.

When MK NEWS phoned the company's order line this week we were told it does not keep the substance on site but could send it to us the next day at a cost of £65 for 10g.

"It comes in a brown padded envelope by recorded delivery and you have to sign for it. There is no sign of what it is or where it comes from," the operator said.

It is understood that there are several other businesses distributing the drug in the city.

The Government's chief drugs adviser Professor Les Iversen has indicated the Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs (ACMD) will recommend mephedrone be banned and categorised as a Class B drug.

The combination of mixing mephedrone with horse tranquiliser ketamine has earned it the street name of 'Milton Keynes'.

Dr Vasco Fernandes, consultant physician for the MK's Community Drug and Alcohol Centre, outlined mephedrone's risks to the heart, lungs, nervous system and brain. If it's legal it doesn't mean it's safe. There's a huge issue about the purity. We need to make the public properly aware of the serious dangers of using these substances.

"Banning it doesn't take the problem away. The drug producers and dealers are always one step ahead. They've always got something else up their sleeve."

Celebr8 organisers are looking for someone with a special city link

WHAT'S your MK claim to fame?

Organisers are looking for someone with a special city link to lead this summer's Celebr8 parade.

Billed as our answer to the Notting Hill Carnival, the parade hopes to draw a crowd of thousands on August 29.

But the person leading the participants - who include everyone from youngsters to OAPs - will be chosen by readers of MK NEWS

Maybe you are the family whose four generations have grown up in Milton Keynes, or someone who has lived on ten different estates. Were you the first baby born at the hospital?

The winner will wave the flag at the front of the throng and sound the siren to kick off the march.

Gavin Anderson, who is behind Celebr8, said: "Because it's the people's parade we think it should be the people who decide who leads it.

"It's partly for a person or people who the public think are representative of Milton Keynes. But it's also for those they believe should be recognised for who they are or what they've done.

"Maybe it's a caretaker of a school for 40 years, or the family whose generations have all grown up in the city, or even the first baby born here. We are looking for the unsung heroes."

To be in with a chance of winning this prestigious role, tell us, in no more than 50 words, why you should lead the parade.

You can either enter yourself or your group, or nominate someone else, but they must be willing to take part.

Entries will be whittled down by MK NEWS and the organisers and readers will have the chance to vote for their favourite.

Send your entries to jessica.cunniffe@mk-news.co.uk or post them to Celebr8 competition, MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, Milton Keynes, MK15 0DU.

Councillor suspended for bullying behaviour

A COUNCIL stalwart has been suspended for six months for bullying and bringing her office into disrepute.

Milton Keynes councillor Isabella Fraser, who has been a parish councillor in Campbell Park for 30 years, was found to breach the Code of Conduct in four areas, including treating others with respect and compromising officers' impartiality.

Her suspension covers both parish and Milton Keynes Council.

She made one former city council officer cry after angrily asking: "Who gave you permission to come to my parish?"

This, said a report commissioned by the Monitoring Officer for MK Council, was part of a 'pattern of bullying behaviour'.

The main complaint stemmed from November 20, 2008, when Cllr Fraser verbally assaulted a council officer during the National Association of Local Councils conference.

She was heard shouting at Caroline Godfrey, who gave a presentation at the event, calling her speech 'lies all lies'.

The officer was said to be 'shocked and distressed by the incident'.

However, in interview she said: "I refute strongly that I was bullying in any way - angry, frustrated, passionate about what I believe in. Bullying, no."

Evidence was heard during a Standards Committee hearing on Thursday and Friday

Cllr Fraser, who sits on six city council committees, did not attend the hearing.

She was found to bring her office into disrepute on a second matter after requesting the full electoral roll on behalf of Campbell Park Parish Council, even though it was only entitled to an edited version.

This allowed the council to send individually addressed letters to residents in the Central Milton Keynes Town Council ward urging them to support a council amalgamation.

Cllr Fraser was unavailable for comment, however, she sent a letter to council and Lib Dem group leader Sam Crooks to state that she is appealing.

He said: "I deeply regret the situation. Isabella has a tremendous record for help in the community in a number of other issues such as equality and community safety. On this case however, we are appealing, so I can't add anything."

Cllr Isabella Fraser failed to treat others with respect and compromised council officers' impartiality – she denies that she was 'bullying in any way'

On song: Young mums with their children at Orbit Housing's hostel in Springfield

Homeless mums write and record songs for hospital's neo-natal unit

YOUNG mothers have written and recorded two songs to raise money for a hospital baby unit.

The women aged between 16 and 24 have produced a CD and DVD of the songs inspired by their experiences with their babies to raise money for the neo-natal unit at Milton Keynes General Hospital.

They are all members of Motherhood, a group formed in the homeless hostel in Springfield run by Orbit Housing, which accommodates young mothers who are expecting a baby or have recently given birth.

Project manager Marie Robinson said: "This project has been a fantastic experience for the young women here.

"Having created the CD they now know that it is possible to achieve anything they set their minds to.

"It has given them the confidence to set new goals in all areas of their lives such as CV writing and job hunting. I'm extremely proud of their achievements."

The songs, called Baby Love and Building Brighter Futures, were recorded with funding from Orbit Community Investment Fund and Campbell Park Parish Council and went on sale yesterday at MK Hospital shop for £3.

Rebecca, 19, said: "My son Cooper had to be resuscitated when he was born and I was close to losing him.

"He has since gone from strength to strength and I am very proud of him and we share a very strong bond.

"Baby Love expresses some of the feelings a mother has for her child and the whole experience was very inspiring."

Grace, 17, added: "It was amazing to be in the recording studio.

"Living at the hostel has helped me to develop skills that will help me in the future, from budgeting and self confidence to independence and parenting."

Local neighbourhood officer PC Jason Rowe who visits the hostel regularly to offer support to the young mothers, said: "All of the girls have worked very hard to put the songs together in something they are passionate about."

Five Serco refuse staff suspended

BY JESSICA CUNNIFFE
jessica.cunniffe@mk-news.co.uk

FIVE refuse workers have been suspended for alleged use of banned substances.

An internal investigation is taking place into the employees of Serco, Milton Keynes Council's environmental services contractor.

The environmental services department includes refuse operators, recycling operators and street cleaners.

Serco would not confirm or deny whether the allegations had been reported to police or if the workers, who were suspended last week, are still being paid.

When asked the date of the alleged incident or incidents, Adam Fergie, communications director for Serco Local Government said: "It's an investigation into the usage, there's not one particular incident."

Investigation taking place over allegations of the use of 'banned substances'

In a statement the company, which has been used by Milton Keynes Council since April 2009, said: 'Serco can confirm that five operatives from our environmental services team at Milton Keynes have been suspended, whilst an internal investigation is being carried out into the alleged use of banned substances. We do not have any further comment to make whilst this investigation is taking place.'

A spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said: "This is an employee issue and there's nothing we can say. It's purely a matter for Serco because it's their staff."

A spokesman for Thames Valley Police said: "The police have been made aware of it. It's not an investigation at this stage. It's being handled internally by Serco. We're monitoring it and our officers are going to speak to the management to get more information."

Broughton homes for sale use 'Street View'

SIR – The people from Broughton who are complaining about their loss of privacy and calling Google's Street View as 'a burglar's dream' need to practice what they preach.

With a few minutes searching for properties for sale in Broughton I found an estate agent's site with a property in London Road. There were nine photographs of the property showing back garden, side, living room, kitchen, everything for a 'burglar's dream'.

Also there was a link to Google Street View HELPING the prospective buyer see the location, neighbours and area.

Why have the residents not complained about this 'invation of privacy'?

I guess that they might put aside their high values when they want to make money themselves.

They can't honestly believe that burglars scroll through Google to find a dream house to burgle.

And if they did the possibilities are that they would turn up to house full of residents.

Burglary is not planned it's done by opportunists who see an empty-looking property or a window open.

Everyone has a right to take photos from a public place/highways etc, as long as they are not featuring any person strongly, that's the law.

Bad parking is verging on the ridiculous

SIR – I, for one, am ecstatic about the plans for anti-verge legislation – especially in Westcroft.

OK we can blame the council, designers, builders, etc, that the roads are too narrow, the driveways are not wide enough etc, but at the end of the day this is the situation and we have to make the best of a bad job.

What is needed is a dose of common sense and neighbourly spirit!

When you have a drive and/or garage use it instead of parking on the road making the road even narrower (especially Hidcote Drive).

Verge parking is messy, dangerous and possibly very costly.

Most of the houses in Hidcote Drive have their water meters near the road side of the verges – the bin collector nearly drove over mine trying to reverse – all because some twit decided to park on the road opposite the entrance to Earlshall Place.

Votes count

SIR – I am writing to raise awareness of Macmillan's Vote Cancer Support campaign.

People don't choose to have cancer and they don't choose which cancer they get but the forthcoming General Election gives us all the opportunity to choose how we treat the one in three people who are unlucky enough to get cancer.

Macmillan has been campaigning to improve the support offered to the two million people living with and beyond cancer; improve access to treatments for rarer cancers; and for better out of hours care for people nearing the end of their lives.

I want our local Parliamentary candidates to support these proposals to improve cancer care in the UK.

We need to keep the pressure on and I want to encourage others to get our local parliamentary candidates to sign up to the Vote Cancer Support campaign by going to Macmillan's website: www.macmillan.org.uk/vote

Watchdog imposes conditions for safety of mums and babies

Midwives a must at city's hospital

BY JESSICA CUNNIFFE
jessica.cunniffe@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's maternity unit has been ordered to take action for the safety of mothers and babies.

Milton Keynes Hospital is not complying with four of the 16 essential standards of safety and quality, including staffing and welfare.

The Care Quality Commission (CQC), which monitors healthcare authorities, has imposed numerous conditions on the hospital.

From April 1 every mother must have one-to-one support from a registered midwife during labour.

The CQC said the hospital has not shown sufficient improvement in providing adequate staffing during peak times, despite repeated recommendations from regulators and damning comments from the coroner following two baby deaths.

Roxy Boyce, CQC regional director, said: "There are long-standing problems at this trust in relation to its maternity services. The trust has not always responded fast enough to address concerns raised by patients or those raised by the regulator.

"We have imposed a number of conditions requiring action to ensure the safety of mothers and babies. Until all of these issues have been fully addressed, we are making it a legal requirement for this trust that all women in established labour receive one-to-one care from a registered midwife.

"We are doing this to protect the safety of mothers and babies. One-to-one care is in line with NICE guidance, which is not mandatory across the NHS. But, given the history of concern about staffing levels in the Milton Keynes maternity unit, we will make it a condition of registration in this particular case."

Though it has succeeded in recruiting more staff, the maternity unit is failing to show that they are supported or trained.

In fact, concerns over medical training to trainees have been reported to the CQC.

It has also been ordered to improve its system for treating at risk mothers and babies.

Jill Rodney, chief executive of Milton Keynes Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, said: "We would like to reassure local women that our maternity department does provide a safe and quality service and that they will be well looked after when they come into the trust. If any woman or their partner has any concerns at all about coming in to Milton Keynes Hospital to have their baby we would urge them to get in touch to talk these concerns through with us.

"Our team has been touched by the number of mothers who have recently contacted us, both directly and through the media, to tell us about the good experience they had at our unit."

Khaled Mannan from Dine Asia has a 'pay what you think the food is worth' policy

Dine out and pay what you like

A RESTAURATEUR is so confident of his food that he is offering customers to pay what they like for it.

Khaled Mannan took over Dine Asia, on the Buckingham Road in Deanshanger, four months ago and last week started a payment policy with a difference.

Rather than allowing diners to eat as much as they like as rival eateries do, Mr Mannan is telling them to pay as much as they like.

A common practice in Vietnam, Hong Kong and Thailand, guide prices are given but people can pay whatever they think the Indian and Thai food is worth.

So far, diners have typically paid more than is suggested.

Mr Mannan said: "People are really shocked. It's going very very well actually. It applies across the whole menu. There are guideline prices but people pay what they think it's worth.

"People could pay a penny. I would have to accept that.

"What inspired me is our confidence and know-how of running restaurants and quality of food and service is of a very high standard. People will find it very difficult to pay us pennies.

"Some people pay a lot more than the guide price. The most they've paid is double. People paying below the guide price will be offset against people who pay more."

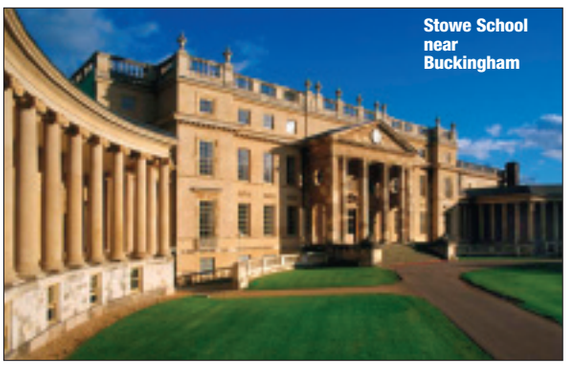
Deadly dinners at top public school

Kitchen porter arrested after poison found in Stowe soup

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk



Stowe School near Buckingham

A KITCHEN porter at a public school has been arrested on suspicion of poisoning soup that was going to be served to pupils.

The 58-year-old man, who worked at Stowe School near Buckingham, was arrested on Friday, March 12 on suspicion of administering poison with intent to endanger life or inflict grievous bodily harm.

Headteacher Dr Anthony Wallersteiner said staff became suspicious that the soup may have been tampered with on Thursday, March 11 after routine testing was carried out before it was served for the evening meal.

He said: "This is clearly a serious but isolated allegation of food being tampered with. It was detected early and an investigation undertaken immediately. I would like to reassure parents that no pupil or member of staff was affected in the incident and neither pupils nor staff were put at any risk."

The kitchen porter was immediately suspended and has been instructed that he cannot enter the school premises.

Police arrested the man at his home near Brackley. He has been bailed until March 29.

DC Vicky Ball, investigating, said: "Nobody has been harmed, but these are serious accusations.

"Our investigation is still in its early stages and forensic work is continuing."

Dog owning cousins on trial

A DOG owner is on trial for cropping his mastiff's ears and failing to ensure its welfare.

Lloyd Murray, 35, is charged with carrying out a prohibited procedure, or causing it to carried out, after his dog Zion was found to have trimmed ears.

On Monday, Milton Keynes Magistrates' heard that two mastiffs, the second called Big Bitch, and a Staffordshire bull terrier belonging to Mr Murray's cousin were kept at his then address in Kinross Drive in Bletchley in March, 2009.

Janita Patel, RSPCA prosecutor, said an inspector visited and saw the dogs through the windows. Miss Patel said: "She could see a dog whose ear tips were missing. There was also a second dog in a cage who did not have water. She went to the back of the property and could see a third dog in a cage with no water."

Tthe following day two police officers visited Mr Murray's address for an unrelated reason and saw one of the mastiffs running loose outside the house.

PC Sarah North-Keeling claimed that when she asked Mr Murray about the dog's ears he said: 'I clipped them when he was a pup to make him look hard'.

She advised Mr Murray to keep control of his dogs and reported concerns about the animals' welfare to the RSPCA.

A week later RSPCA and police officers forced entry to Mr Murray's property and the dogs were seized.

Mr Murray, who now lives in Doncaster, is charged with failing to ensure the welfare of his two dogs by confining them in an environment that was detrimental to their wellbeing.

His cousin Jordan Murray, 20, from, London faces the same charges relating to his dog.

The trial continues.

Lorry driver charged with causing cyclist's death

A LORRY driver has been charged with causing the death of a cyclist on the A5 by dangerous driving.

Philip Dulwich, 41, from Norfolk Road, Dagenham in Essex was charged by police on Saturday and has been bailed to appear at Milton Keynes Magistrates Court on April 23. The charge relates to an incident on Thursday, October 8 when Martin West, 43, was killed in a collision with a lorry while he was cycling southbound down the A5 dual carraigeway.

Mr West, a father of three from Gloucester Road, Wolverton, volunteered as a special sergeant for Thames Valley Police.

He was cycling to his full time job as production supervisor for tool coating company Oerlikon Balzers in Tilbrook when the crash happened close to the Portway roundabout at around 4.25am.

Garden of light and musical delight

A GARDEN has been filled with magical sound and light by youngsters working with an arts charity.

Young people aged between 16 and 25 have created the Garden of Light working with international artist Nathan Hughes in a project by Inter-Action MK.

The series of installations has been placed in the grounds of the Old Rectory, Peartree Bridge and will be open to view on Tuesday, March 23, Wednesday, March 24 and Saturday, March 27 from 7.30pm.

One of the volunteers, Jesita Patel, 16, from Bradville said: "The project has become interesting and weirder over the weeks and makes you see the garden in different ways, visualising strange and amazing things."

The project was funded by a grant from Global Radio V.

Drink at home? Fancy filling in a daily diary?

THE health service is inviting people to be involved in a new project collecting information about drinking alcohol at home.

NHS Milton Keynes aims to reduce the need for hospital admissions resulting from risky levels of alcohol consumption.

Sue Frossell, consultant in public health said: "Many people enjoy a drink at home in the evening after a stressful day at work.

"There is nothing wrong with that, but it is easy to drink more alcohol than you realise at home and regularly drinking more than the recommended safe limits can be a serious risk to your health.

"We are inviting local people aged over 35 to join in this innovative project to help us find out more about the problem locally and how we can help raise awareness of the dangers of drinking too much alcohol at home."

Fifty volunteers will be asked to compile a daily diary over a two week period about the alcohol they drink at home, which will then be analysed completely anonymously.

A focus group is the second stage of the programme, with thirty new individuals from the same age group, to discuss and understand the findings from the first group's diaries.

Anyone interested in taking part can e-mail Selene on splevey@smsr.co.uk. indicating which stage they are volunteering for the diary or the focus groups.

Store fined after cherry picker hit manager in face

BY ALEXANDRA MASON
editor@mk-news.co.uk

RETAIL giant John Lewis has been fined £16,000 after a breach of health and safety laws left a store worker with facial injuries.

The shop's merchandising manager Madeline Nicholas, 59, was struck in the face by the basket of a 'cherry picker' vehicle outside its store in thecentre:mk on June 28, 2008.

On Friday, Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court heard that the manager received a cut above her eye and that her spectacles were damaged in the incident.

John Lewis pleaded guilty to several breaches of health and safety regulations including failure to separate vehicles and pedestrians in the workplace.

Magistrates took into account the company's guilty plea and its good health and safety record meant that the potential fine was reduced from £24,000 to £16,000.

The company was also ordered to pay £8,987.85 legal costs.

Cupboard's bare at Willen Hospice

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

WORKERS at a charity's warehouse are being left idle as clothes donations have plummeted.

Willen Hospice relies on donations to recycle and sell in its charity shops to raise funds to help finance patient care so is urgently appealing to the general public to give their unwanted clothes.

Christine Dines, warehouse manager, said: "We are extremely low on clothing donations. You can count the number of bags waiting to be sorted; no more than a few at any time.

"Our committed volunteers are having to go home as there is nothing for them to sort, price and get ready to sell.

"If you are having a spring clear out please think of us for your unwanted clothes."

Willen Hospice provides care for over 400 terminally ill adults a year and also support to families and friends.

Any items of clothing in good condition are welcome and can be for adults or children.

Donations can be dropped off at the warehouse in Kiln Farm or any of the Hospice Shops in Stony Stratford, Leighton Buzzard, Towcester, Olney, Bletchley, Buckingham and Newport Pagnell or at the Hospice in Willen Village.

Freemasons fund youth projects

A NEW scheme is to encourage young people to serve the community in which they live.

Any group of youngsters aged seven to 18 are invited to enter a competition to win money towards their idea for a project to help their local community.

The 'ihelp' competition was launched by the Bletchley Freemasons recently.

Five youth projects will be given cash prizes of £250 per team and a chance to compete in a regional final. There is a total of £13,750 up for grabs and the final will be held at the Beaconsfield Masonic centre in August.

Mike Stimson, assistant head of Bletchley Freemasons, said: "Freemasonry is all about the community and we want to give a lead to today's youngsters who may be tomorrow's community leaders. This exciting competition is open to any group of young people in Bletchley that wants to make a difference – from Scouts to singing groups and from schools to sports clubs."

The group must consist of a minimum of three young people and have an adult leader who is over 21-years-of-age.

Jurys Inn on UKIP

THE UK Independence Party launched its manifesto in Milton Keynes on Friday.

More than 500 delegates attended the arty's spring conference at the Jurys Inn.

Speaking at the end of the conference, the party's new leader Lord Pearson said voters are running out of time to save the country from disaster.

"After five more years it may be very difficult to escape," he said.

"We will no longer be enmeshed on every side in the tentacles of the corrupt octopus, as we are today; we will be in its belly.

"So whatever the doubts about a hung Parliament, a Conservative victory would be an absolutely certain disaster, just as bad as Labour. It would be the final extinction of what millions of our forebears have died for over hundreds of years. We must not let it happen."

UKIP's new leader Lord Pearson speaking at Jurys Inn

Nigel Farage, the former leader, is UKIP's candidate for Buckingham, where he intends to unseat Commons Speaker John Bercow.

In his speech he said: "I think that this constituency above all others offers people the opportunity to send a message to the entire political class.

"I think this Speaker is a symbol of that political class and all that is wrong in politics today."

Eco Warriors tackle Co-op shoppers

BY ALEXANDRA MASON

editor@mk-news.co.uk

SHOPPERS at a supermarket found themselves ambushed by mini Eco Warriors when pupils from Fulbrook School set out to recruit allies for a campaign to fight climate change.

The children, aged between 11 and 12, spent the afternoon interviewing customers at the Co-operative store in Woburn Sands about their green credentials.

Shoppers were challenged on their recycling habits and energy use for a report about the town's commitment to green issues and received advice about steps they can take to help the environment.

Store manager Brian Kirkland said: "The invasion of our store by the small army of Eco Warriors was a great success and our customers learned a lot about how small changes can make a big difference to helping save the planet.

Simon Thomas, Fulbrook's year group co-ordinator, added: "The pupils are passionate about environmental issues. The Eco Warriors project gives them the chance to carry out interesting and original research and share their knowledge and enthusiasm with the wider community."

Vandal-hit painting is restored and re-hung

A VANDALISED painting that captures the spirit of early Milton Keynes has been restored to its former glory.

'Some Day' was purchased in 1984 by Milton Keynes Development Corporation and was located in the Civic Offices of Milton Keynes Council until graffiti was discovered on the painting at the end of last year.

Now thanks to a grant from the Museums, Libraries and Archives Council it has now been cleaned, restored and relocated to the central library where more people will be able to enjoy it.

Painted during the early development years of Milton Keynes, the painting refers to real places and people to create a fictional image of life in the 'New Town', particularly Central Milton Keynes.

It is the work of internationally established artists Fionnuala Boyd and Les Evan, who have lived and worked in Milton Keynes ever since being commissioned to do the painting in the 80s.

This painting was part of the artists' preparations for producing the larger well known artwork at the central library called 'Fiction, Non-Fiction and Reference' that has pride of place in the central stairwell to the library.

Cllr Vanessa McPake with artists Fionnuala Boyd and Les Evan in front of the restored painting

Cllr Vanessa McPake, in charge of culture, said: "I am very pleased that this work of art has been restored. It is especially pleasing that it is now in the library where so many people will have the opportunity to see it. I hope they enjoy this wonderful work of art that depicts the life of our city."

A leaflet with more information about the three Boyd and Evans paintings in Milton Keynes civic collection is available from the library or to download from www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/arts

SPORT RELIEF

THOUSANDS of runners took to the streets of Milton Keynes on Sunday to take part in the Sainsbury's Sports Relief Mile. Among those taking part were rugby World Cup winner and Saracens legend Kyran Bracken, former Hollyoaks actress Mikyla Dodd, and an array of locals many in fancy dress.
The event was organised to get people active, raise money and change lives by running in the one, three, or six mile event. There was also time left over for residents of Milton Keynes to set a new world record at the Hula Hoops Hoopathon.

Community event a boost to estate

Computer training and bulb and seed planting on agenda

A COMMUNITY day has given a boost to the regeneration of an estate.

Last week Tinkers Bridge Meeting Place hosted an event for residents, including craft activities, free computer training and bulb and seed planting for children.

Organised by Woughton Community Council it also gave advice on saving money on fuel bills.

MK Council, Thames Valley Police and MK College were also involved, and even dogs were treated a gift bag.

Residents were also invited to see the garden which is currently being transformed as part of a refurbishment programme organised by members of the local community who attend Tinkers Bridge Drop-in, supported by Groundwork.

It is hoped that such days will encourage Tinkers Bridge residents to really get involved in estate matters.

Denbigh School students in the Rock Challenge UK competition

Kids act their age in Rock Challenge

STUDENTS at Denbigh School have won through to the regional final of a performing arts competition.

A team of 107 pupils from Denbigh performed against eight other secondary schools in the Rock Challenge UK competition in Stevenage recently.

The competition, presented by the Be Your Best Foundation, challenges schools to deliver anti-drug and crime-prevention messages to the heart of teenage culture by using music, dance, fashion and media images.

Denbigh School based its performance on 'children in the care system', finishing in first place and winning three awards for Best Stage Crew, Big Spend on Staging, and Best Performing Skills.

Teacher Geraldine Tetlow, who choreographed the performance with her colleague Victoria Welling, said: "The students who took part were from a mix of year groups and each of them was dedicated to providing their best.

"We are very proud of their hard work and commitment to the competition.

"We are looking forward to competing at the Southern Region Final at Portsmouth Guildhall on June 11."

Young people urged to make their vote count

YOUNG people across Milton Keynes are being urged to make sure they get their names on the electoral register.

Milton Keynes still boasts one of the youngest populations in Europe, but unfortunately, it is well known that younger people are less likely to bother to vote.

Cllr Sam Potts, the Youth Champion for MKC, said: "I got involved in politics at a very early age and today politics means more to young people than ever before issues such as the legal age for drinking etc, how safe you are when you go clubbing at night it's not just about people sitting in the House of Commons, but about issues that affect you right on your doorstep, especially as young person.

"Young people are eligible to be on the electoral roll from 16 onwards, If you're not on the electoral roll, not only does that stop you from voting, it stops you from doing a lot of things.

"As in a certain famous phrase, you've got to be in it, to win it."

If you're name isn't on the electoral roll you are unlikely to be able to:

- Take out a mobile phone contract
- Do jury service
- Obtain credit

Meanwhile there is still time to register for the elections on 6 May but you must register by April 20 at the latest.

To make sure you do not miss any key dates and information about the elections sign up free to the text or e-mail alert service at www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/election-alerts

Firms and schools up for a challenge

BUSINESSES are once again taking up the challenge to provide help and support for the elderly.

The ExtraCare Charitable Trust is currently building its second village in the city at Shenley Wood, following the success of Lovat Fields in Willen.

The trust is running its Business Challenge Competition for the third year and MK NEWS is once again supporting the event by sponsoring the school challenge.

Organisations which want to take part will be given £50 with a challenge of 'growing' the money to see which makes the most from April to June.

This can be done by any means as long as it is legal, decent and honest.

The competition is an opportunity to build team spirit within a company while raising money at the same time.

A host of businesses and schools have already signed up and MK NEWS will follow the competiton through to the awards ceremony.

If you are interested in being part of the competition contact Ann Allen, Lovat Fields Village, Japonica Lane, Brickhill Street MK 15 9LE for an application form or email ann.allen@extracare.org.uk

It's good to work for the OU – official

THE Open University is celebrating after being named as one of the best company's to work for.

The OU was the highest ranking higher education institution in the 2010 Sunday Times Best Companies to Work For in the Public Sector list published on Sunday.

Placed at number seven, the OU is ranked higher than any other public sector organisation for the categories 'giving something back' and 'fair deal'. It also ranks third in the 'my company' factor, which measures how staff feel about their employer and work ethos.

Nigel Holt, director of HR at the OU, said: "We decided to take part in the survey because we see real value in benchmarking ourselves against the best organisations in the UK. The Sunday Times surveyed members of staff at Walton Hall, national and regional centres. I am delighted that our staff participated in this and led to us being nominated for the award. The success of the University is due to our outstanding employees."

The University is listed on the Best Companies Accreditation website with one star and is one of just 410 organisations to be awarded accreditation from Best Companies.

Quality apartments at Axcess MK

Shared home ownership is the smarter way to get on the property ladder. You choose a property you like, buy a share you can afford and pay a subsidised rent on the rest. You save substantially on renting a similar property privately and you can increase your share at any time all the way to 100%.

But buying your first home in manageable, affordable stages doesn't mean compromise. For example, the Axcess MK apartments in Milton Keynes feature contemporary style bathrooms with continental wall tiles and a heated chrome towel rail.

And now apartments at Axcess MK are more affordable than ever. Prices for a one bedroom apartment start from just £32,500 for a 25% share based on a full market price of £130,000. So now you can save money without compromising on quality.

Volunteers plant bluebells in wood

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

SIX HUNDRED bluebell bulbs have been planted by volunteers in Downs Barn Wood.

Residents and Police Community Support Officers from Downs Barn, Pennyland, Conniburrow and Neath Hill and Great Linford Parish Council joined forces to plant the bulbs on Saturday, March 13.

Rita Vahey, area parks and open spaces officer, said: "The event was a great success in helping to gain community involvement in the care and development of Downs Barn Wood.

"This is great news for users of the wood and enables us to work towards Green Flag status.

"Community gardening is a wonderful way of getting to know your local community, doing your bit for the environment, brightening up where you live and having a more active and healthier life."

Milton Keynes Council is working towards ensuring that Downs Barn Wood is awarded Green Flag status, the benchmark national standard for parks and green spaces in England and Wales.

Happy Easter

2nd APRIL 2010

What is Easter?

Easter celebrates the resurrection of Jesus, which according to Christian belief happened on the third day after his crucifixion. In the Roman Catholic Church, Easter is an eight-day feast called the Octave of Easter. Many Christian denominations celebrate this resurrection on Easter Day or Easter Sunday.
The first Easter eggs, dating back thousands of years were painted red and the tradition of painting eggs (goose, duck or hen) continued and became more elaborate through the centuries.

The first chocolate eggs appeared in the early 1800s, although the nature of chocolate (at that time) made creating a hollow egg something of an achievement. A hundred years later the improved chocolate making process plus mass production created the commercially available, relatively low cost, chocolate Easter Egg and within the following hundred years it became the dominant gift for Easter. As well as the giving and receiving of traditional gifts, Easter is also a symbol of spring approaching with, hopefully, better weather & longer days. The extended Easter weekend is also an ideal chance to get together with family and friends to enjoy the activities on offer in Milton Keynes.

SIMON DARNELL

THE ONLY EXCEPTION
Paramore

MAYBE it's just me, but when rock bands take it down a few notches and try their luck with a 'heart-felt love song / tearjerker' more often than not the end result sounds as if the only reason they did the song in the first place was because the album needed some-thing slow to break things up a little, not because they really meant it.

Sometimes, granted, it works. Metallica have managed to get away with it in the past, but the biggest problem is that most of the time if you're a singer in a rock band your voice is not built for balladeering.

Well, Hayley Williams's voice is built for balladeering so at least Paramore got that part right.

Actually, the tune's quite well done too – it builds up very slowly, with no jarring moments to spoil the mood.

So far, so good, but these things always fall down with the lyrics, don't they?

Not this time. Yes, it's an out-an-out love song, and yes, I usually hate these things, but if you can write a love song that accepts that the real world isn't all sweetness and light and singers screaming 'oh girl' or 'oh baby' you can't go far wrong.

We do get a few 'darlings' here, but they're sung like the word actually means something to the singer rather than just a word she has to recite from a page.

All in all, as 'heartfelt love songs / tearjerkers' go, this is far better than most.

RULES DON'T STOP
We Are Scientists

SO, Paramore's song had something to say. That's nice to know.

We Are Scientists's song also has something to say, but it's not as deep or meaningful. Basically, their message is 'Let's enjoy ourselves and worry about the consequences later' and the song is as bright and breezy as the message. Both of this week's bands use so-called 'proper' instruments, but aside from that these singles are polar opposites of each other.

This is a band that likes to enter-tain, so as is usually the way with a We Are Scientists single, it's great fun to listen to, full of the joys of spring and ought to be a much big-ger hit than it's inevitably going to be. It's also got a highly watchable video, but that's par for the course with this lot. I'm recommending this and so should you.

ALFIE

Blackeyed Theatre
Tuesday, March 30. 7.30pm

MADE famous by movies starring Michael Caine and more recently Jude Law, Alfie is the brilliant, original stage play about a young man with an overwhelming desire for the ladies.

Alfie combines great comedy and genuine pathos, as well as live 60s music, as it tells the story of a cockney 'Don Juan' who swaggers and philosophises his way from conquest to conquest, rejecting anyone or anything that might touch him too deeply.

Blackeyed Theatre, which is supported in this production by South Hill Park Arts Centre in Bracknell, is a nationally-renowned producer of challenging mid-scale touring theatre.

"I would be grateful if you could pass this on to your manager. The reason we have decided to proceed with Taylors Bletchley over any other agent, is due to the excellent service I have received from both Huda at Stony Stratford & Carol at Newport Pagnell. They have been searching for a property for us. Both have stayed in touch, always calling to advise new properties to the market and always with an excellent, personal & professional service. Of all the agents contacting me, they have been the most on the ball and the ones that stick in my mind.

I would like to say that both Huda and Carol have been ,a pleasure to deal with. Now it's down to Rob to impress us by selling our house (taken on today)! I'm sure he won't disappoint :-)

With Taylors both now selling our property and looking for a property for us, I'm sure we are in the right hands and am confident you will deliver.

Please pass on my thanks again to both Huda and Carol for all their hard work so far.

Hayley"

She really kept everything moving with her persistence, determination and professionalism. I found her to be totally honest and trustworthy. Helen is a true asset to your company. I think she is a real star!"

After searching for our future home for four months, Renja has excelled herself in our search, keeping us updated with possible new homes coming on the market. Her communication was superb. Our sincere thanks go to her for all her efforts and we would recommend her to anyone.

Time capsule marks start of second OAPs' village

BRINGING gifts representing personal recollections and local history, 100 older local residents filled and buried a ceremonial time capsule on the site of Milton Keynes' second retirement village which has just begun construction on 10 acres of land in Shenley Wood.

A partnership between Milton Keynes Council, Milton Keynes Partnership, The Department of Health and The ExtraCare Charitable Trust, the new scheme opens in Winter 2011.

It could provide an innovative housing and lifestyle solution for some of the 200-plus older people currently on a waiting list for the partnership's Willen-based Lovat Fields Village which opened in 2007.

The first 184 Shenley Village one and two bedroom homes are due to open by Winter 2011. A further 116 homes are planned as part of a second phase.

Properties will be available for purchase or rent and will be affordable, even for those people living in rented property on a minimum state pension.

Celebrating burying thr time capsule are, from left, Hazeley School students Joseph Lawson and Jessica Hill, Mayor Euan Henderson, Marian Joiner, potential resident, Dr Phyllis Starkey MP, Nick Abbey, chief executive for ExtraCare, Graham Hyslop of MK Partnership Homes will surround the Village Centre with 18 leisure facilities including a restaurant, bar, village hall, wellbeing centre, IT suite, craft room and greenhouse.

The village has received £4.875m through Milton Keynes Partnership and a further £3.5m from The Department of Health. ExtraCare is establishing a £1.2m appeal to fund the Village Centre which will provide affordable social and active opportunities for up to 500 older residents, families and community members.

Cllr Sam Crooks, leader of Milton Keynes Council,said: "This is a really imaginative way of celebrating the start of our second ExtraCare Village. I'm delighted to see the council thinking so positively about how people will live after retirement."

Nick Abbey, chief executive of The ExtraCare Charitable Trust, said: "There are a significant number of local older people who would like to experience the lifestyle and opportunities offered at Lovat Fields Village and we have a waiting list that demonstrates this. I am delighted that our partnership will be able to help satisfy demand by providing this second Milton Keynes Village."

To find out about ExtraCare's £1.2m appeal for the second village contact Ann Allen on 07825171546. ann.allen@extracare.org.uk

Dean Lewington looks bemused as Aaron Wilbraham and David McCracken crash into each other at a Dons corner

Lambert marches all over the Dons

MK DONS 0 SOUTHAMPTON 3

THE £1 million man was the difference between Southampton and MK Dons.

That man is Rickie Lambert and unfortunately for the Dons he has run them ragged this season and he chose stadiummk as the venue for his first Saints hat-trick.

Dons boss Paul Ince thought there was never three goals between the two sides, while Alan Pardew admitted Saints' fourth win over Dons this season was down to having the star man on the field.

Lambert is proving to be a bargain buy for the Saints as he took his tally to the 30-goal mark, and he did it in spectacular fashion with an astonishing volley.

In their three previous meetings this campaign the Dons had been bullied by the physical Saints, this time they matched them but that will be little consolation as they look back at the fixtures and see a 3-0 defeat.

And Ince couldn't hide his disappointment after the game, he said: "There were never three goals between those two sides, I thought the scoreline was totally unjustified. We were well in the game. It was always going to be a battle, but we stood up to them and I thought we were excellent today."

But the Dons' performance, which had seen Dean Lewington miss a terrific chance, unravelled in the second half when Lambert found the breakthrough three minutes in.

Kelvin Davis' trademark boot up field called Willy Gueret off his line, and the Saints striker headed the ball home before the Dons keeper could reach it.

Jermaine Easter almost brought the scores level with an acrobatic scissor kick which fell just wide, and then limped off before Mathias Doumbe's challenge on Jose Fonte allowed Lambert to net his second from the penalty spot.

Ince added:"The two goals that killed us were down to individual mistakes, which you just cannot account for. Willy is devastated but he's been outstanding for us this season. Matty has also made a poor decision, trying to get tight on the centre-half, though I thought there was minimal contact inside the box."

Lambert saved the best until last when another punt upfield from Davis fell to him, he took one touch, and the Dons argue that was with his hand, before volleying with his right foot into the net from 40-yards.

The Dons boss added: æThe third goal is a wonder goal, as soon as he hit it you know it's in and only Rickie Lambert could do that."

COMING UP

GILLINGHAM

League One

Saturday, March 27

Priestfield Stadium

KO 3pm

THE Gills are relying on their form at Priestfield to keep them out of the relegation zone - they have not managed a single win on their travels – which is bad news for MK Dons.

Dons will be hoping to inflict a fourth home defeat on Gills as they strive to keep their faint play-off ambitions alive.

Simeon Jackson has led the way for Mark Stimson's side this season with 17 goals but they have struggled elsewhere with only Curtis Weston and Andy Barcham weighing in with telling contributions with six and five in the league respectively.

Stirling out on loan

JUDE Stirling joined League Two's Grimsby Town on loan until the end of the season.

The deal went through in time for the Dons' utility man to feature in the Mariners' 3-2 win over second-placed Bournemouth.

Stirling played the full 90 minutes and earned high praise from Grimsby boss Neil Woods.

He said: "I can't praise Jude and I can't praise MK Dons manager Paul Ince enough.

"He got up at half-past-six this morning, got a train at half-past-seven and the boy really wants to play. It sounds a corny thing to say, but it's a really refreshing attitude."

Get Crossley

THE Football League have announced the match officials for this week's upcoming fixtures.

Phil Crossley has been handed the Dons' trip to Gillingham on Saturday.

The Kent referee has already taken charge of one Dons game this season – their 4-1 win over Hereford United in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy.

Mr Crossley has reffed 30 games this season and handed out 98 yellow and five red cards in the process.

Ta ta to Toronto

FORMER MK Dons striker Ali Gerba appears to be close to leaving Toronto FC.

The Canadian striker, who spent a season with the Dons last year, was sent home from Toronto's final days of pre-season training in South Carolina.

Director of soccer Mo Johnston said: "Ali's performance this pre-season has not been up to our expectations.

"We hold all our players to a high standard, and we think that the best thing for him is a few days away from the team. This will be addressed further when the team returns back to Toronto."

Spurs feel backlash

DONS Ladies ended a run of five straight defeats with a superb 3-1 win over Tottenham Hotspur Ladies.

The Dons had not won since the start of December and the victory was a much needed morale boost.

Lauren Goodier, Leigh Dean and Heather McDonnell were all on target in the opening half an hour to put the Dons in the driving seat at Willen Road.

A late consolation came for Spurs in the closing minutes.

Don't miss ticket deals

TIME is running out for Dons fans who want to get the best possible deal on 2010/11 season tickets.

The club have set several different deadlines, with the first on Wednesday, March 31, offering the most competitive prices with Cowshed tickets costing £288 while it will cost £300 for the same ticket as a new season ticket holder.

Season ticket applications have been sent to current season ticket holders, and can be picked up from the MK Dons stadium or downloaded from their website.

Pirates' flag lowered by Youngblood

MK LIONS 99 ESSEX PIRATES 89

ROBERT Youngblood rolled back the years last night to inspire MK Lions to their first BBL victory in nine games.

The forward turns 41 next week, yet he was the star performer on a tense night at Middleton Hall as he top scored with 30 points, 17 rebounds and three assists.

Lions confidence has been dented by their recent poor form and they almost threw the game away at the end, but EJ Harrison, on his return from injury, netted four late free-throws to seal the vital win which strengthens Lions play-off bid.

Harrison, Youngblood, Maximillion Simon, Dru Spinks and Yorick Williams took to the floor to start the match. It was the Pirates who started the scoring with Walid Mumuni netting twice from the free-throw line.

But veteran Youngblood turned in a vintage performance, netting 11 of Lions opening 17 points they moved ahead of their opponents.

The free-throws of Taner Adu helped reduce Lions lead to 17-14, but baskets from Spinks and more from Youngblood at the buzzer gave Lions a 26-18 advantage.

Adu was key again for the Pirates starting the second quarter with a three pointer, quickly followed by two three-pointers from Williams, yet the Lions defence allowed the Pirates to stay in touch.

A Harrison three-pointer brought up the half century of points for the Lions who lead 50-43 at the break.

Randy George impressed after the interval, as did Marcus Knight, helping reduce the deficit, yet Youngblood and Morris kept Lions 70-63 ahead.

But in the final quarter the hosts very nearly let the game slip through their hands as they saw their lead twice disappeared, but Craig Pringle found the net from the free-throw line and a steal from Youngblood allowed Williams to race up the court to put the Lions back in the driving seat.

Harrison and Williams then held their nerve at the stripe to earn two important points for the Lions.

■ LIONS travel to Sheffield Sharks on Friday, tip-off 7.30pm, on Monday they host Cheshire Jets, 7.30pm, and on Tuesday they return to Middleton Hall to play Guildford Heat, 7.30pm.

Lions captain Dru Spinks bursts past two Pirates for a basket

VINCE'S VIEW

Head coach and owner of MK Lions, Vince Macaulay writes for MK NEWS

HI all and welcome to what appears to be a General Hospital bulletin for the Lions. It's not bad enough that we have lost over 40 points and 10 rebounds in EJ and Frank but in our Trophy semi-final second leg we have also lost Mike New to a freak hand injury so we've over 50 points out of action.

However, we need to be realistic and pursue our goals of the play-offs and hopefully get some of the guys back in action and then return to winning ways.

We have a few days off after last night's home game against Essex Pirates to get better and be ready for the Cheshire Jets and Guildford Heat at home next Monday and Tuesday, and then the battle to reclaim home advantage begins.

We continue to plan ahead and are making plans to start the season off at thecentre:mk pending the opening of the Arena:MK, we will be publicising season tickets and all sponsorship packages based on thecentre:mk and then deal with any moves later.

The centre has been a real home to us and the delay may have been a blessing in disguise. New fans a terrific atmosphere and first class support from all our sponsors.

I am looking forward to taking a deep breath in this next week and get a chance to visit our Lions clubs, we have announced that we will be playing a game in Aylesbury soon as the Lions go into Buckinghamshire for a bank holiday match on Monday, April 5.

There is some exciting news coming from there and the game there will act as a launch pad.

For now thank you for supporting us and I hope you are enjoying the fun that is Lions basketball!

RUGBY

South West 1 Division

Olney 10
Oakmedians 5

OLNEY recorded a narrow win in difficult playing conditions

After missing an early chance at goal, Oakmedians took the lead with a well run try by their centre but the kick was once again off target.

The score fired Olney into life and a break from scrum half Dave Terry allowed Tom Stanton to cross the line, and the conversion by James Hawken pushed them into a two point lead.

A well matched second-half saw both defences pushed to the limited, and it was only a late penalty from Hawken that secured the 10-5 win for Olney.

Bletchley 9
Marlow 3

BLETCHLEY bounced back from two straight defeats with a 9-3 win over Marlow.

There was a lack of attractive rugby played as the game was marred by penalties.

The game was fiercely contested and it took a Phil Harman drop goal to open the scoring late in the first half which was quickly followed up by a penalty from the Bletchley fly half.

In the second half Marlow came back into the game after an error by Bletchley presented the visitors with a penalty, which sailed over.

But Harman's boot gave Bletchley victory with a late penalty.

Southern Counties North

Milton Keynes 23
Slough 8

MILTON Keynes strengthened their grip on third place with victory at home to Slough.

After conceding an early penalty MK took control thanks to a try from Dan Pearson, who switched to outside centre, added with Mike Deans' conversion and penalty.

From the restart Slough collected the kick and the winger crossed over in the corner.

SPORTS SHORTS

Anna crashes out

ANNA Turney's Paralympic Games in Vancouver ended in heartache as she crashed out of the giant slalom.

The sit-skier was lying in seventh after her first run but poor visibility played a part as she crashed against a gate on her second run.

Turney said: "My first run was respectable but I'm a bit disappointed with the second one. I really went for it because I really wanted to improve a few places but I just couldn't quite make it. I had a good day yesterday in the slalom and that is what I was planning to do today. It has been an amazing experience, I have never experienced anything like it and it is bigger than anything I have done in my life by far."

Swords rewarded

MILTON Keynes' Beth Swords turned in a great run to finish in sixth place in the English Schools Cross Country Intermediate Girls Championships.

In wet and slippery conditions Swords completed the run around Heaton Park, Manchester in 13 minutes at 37 seconds. As a reward Swords has been selected to represent English Schools at the Home Countries International in Truro next Saturday.

Fellow Marshall Milton Keynes Athletic Club runners Jasmine Finlay (33rd) 10m 37s and Sophia Cliffe (74th) 10m 54s to help the Bucks Junior team to bronze.

TOWCESTER stages the first of two fixtures inside a week next Monday afternoon from 2.30pm. The meeting acts as a perfect warm-up for the Easter Sunday card on April 5, when the crowds are expected to flock in for what has become a popular and traditional card which will get under way at 2.10pm.

MOTOR RACING

Bulls are the team to beat

FORMER world champion Lewis Hamilton believes Red Bull will be the team to beat in Melbourne this weekend as the cars are "ridiculously faster" than anyone else on the grid.

Hamilton, the 2008 world champion, finished third in the season-opening grand prix in Bahrain, edging out Red Bull's Sebastian Vettel, who finished fourth, and Mark Webber, who was eighth.

But Hamilton, who profited from Vettel's spark plug problem in Bahrain, said: "The Red Bull is ridiculously faster than anyone else's car. It's insane."

He added: "The down force they had on their car last year was at some points just about double what we had. Even at the end of the year, they had so much more than us, even though we had won a couple of grands prix."

However, the 25-year-old is confident the McLaren set-up will be suited to Melbourne, where he won in 2008.

"I'm looking forward to Melbourne. I like the circuit, I think we'll go well there and I don't think we'll have the same problems that slowed our progress in Bahrain," he added.

Vettel will be desperate to claw back the points he lost in Bahrain while Webber will been keen to impress at his home Grand Prix.

With the teams unable to test between races Red Bull spent the weekend in Northern Ireland.

The team took their Red Bull cars and their former racer David Coulthard to the streets of Belfast for a demonstration run in front of the iconic City Hall.

Red Bull's mission was to show the public what modern F1 machines are made of and the Scot reached up to 190mph as he displays his car's speed, power and control on Belfast's roads.

The Australian Grand Prix takes place on Sunday at 7am.

Champions Lightning are looking for treble

BY SIMONE CORGAN
simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

THE team spirit at MK Lightning helped them to their first piece of silverware in four years, according to player-coach Nick Poole.

On Saturday Lightning were crowned English Ice Hockey Premier League champions, with three games to spare, following their 3-1 win over Swindon Wildcats in front of their own fans at Planet Ice.

Celebrations carried on into the night, with one or two players nursing sore heads as they suffered a hangover 11-1 defeat to Slough Jets the following day.

What makes the achievement all the more impressive is Lightning have done it on a smaller budget than most in the league, and they have won the title despite Peterborough Phantoms, who won the treble last season, and Manchester Phoenix, who dropped down from the Elite League, both expected to challenge for the league this season.

Poole, who scored the third goal in Lightning's title-clinching win, told MK NEWS of his delight to finally get his hand on the title for the third time in seven years.

He said: "Winning the title is a bit of a relief, we haven't won any silverware for a few seasons now, we came so close last season, so to do it this year with such a great team is really pleasing.

"It's been a great season, we always target silverware at the start of the season but the way we have performed throughout has exceeded our expectations. The success this season is down to the team spirit, we have a great bunch of players and we've really gelled and stuck together as a team.

"There has been no egos, no one has been bigger than the team - everyone has wanted to win something for the club."

Lightning are now hoping to emulate the success of their rivals Peterborough by winning the treble, but Poole admits that will be difficult as they have to overturn a five goal deficit tonight if they are to get their hands on the EPL Cup.

They host Guildford Heat in the second-leg this evening and trail 6-1 Poole believes with a slice of luck they could turn it around, yet it is the play-off finals weekend at Coventry in early April that he is targeting.

He added: "Hopefully we can get to Coventry because it's always a great occasion and our fans have already bought lots of tickets to support us.

"We won in the semis last year, but lost in the final so we'll be looking to go one better this time. We won trophies early on in my time here, but in terms of the team and the spirit it's definitely one of the best seasons I've had. I'm really proud."

■ LIGHTNING are at home to Guildford tonight, face-off 7.30pm. Entertain Basingstoke Bison at home on Saturday, 7pm, and visit Peterborough on Sunday, 5.30pm.

Lightning players celebrate after beating Swindon Wildcats to lift the title. One or two players nursed sore heads as the following day they suffered an 11-1 defeat to Slough Jets

Robinson sure Dons can make play-offs

KARL Robinson is refusing to give up on MK Dons' play-off dreams saying there is still enough points to play for to turn it around.

Defeat to Southampton was the latest blow to the Dons' top six ambitions, but Paul Ince's right-hand man insists there will be plenty more slip-ups from the teams above them in the League One table.

In the past five years 71 points has been enough to finish in the top six, the Dons need 15 points from 27 available to match that total but that does not guarantee them an extended season.

When asked if he thought the Dons could realistically sneak into the play-offs a defiant Robinson said:"Yes, one hundred per cent.

"We've still got nine games to go which is a lot of points to play for and we'll do it with a bit of momentum.

"I would say that the last month we look like a much better team, we look like a promotion team, we look like a club that's going forward, physically we're getting there.

"I did say to you at the beginning of the season that it is a work in progress, it is about us getting to the Championship but it's not going to happen overnight and these are just the fruits of what's gone over the past three to four months, and it's starting to pay off, we're just lacking that bit of luck, a bit of quality at the right time."
